Northampton – the heart of England

Perfect location

Northampton is located in the very centre of England, only one hour on the train from London and also close to the cities of Birmingham, Oxford and Cambridge. Served by five international airports and with excellent road and rail links to all parts of the UK and Europe, it's the perfect location to live, to study and to explore.

More for your money

Northampton is a very inexpensive place to live, meaning that your money will go a lot further here than in most other UK cities. On-campus accommodation starts from just over £60 per week, which is very rare for UK university housing.

The excellent cost of living available in Northampton means that you can pocket the savings to make your study experience as cost-effective as possible or you can spend the extra money on one of the many awesome nearby attractions.

So much to do

With everything from Premiership rugby, a purpose-built athletics stadium, motor racing and a white-water rafting centre, high-energy living is on offer around the clock in Northampton. There are also a huge range of cafes, bars, restaurants, nightclubs and music venues to keep you fed, busy and enjoying life in this amazing place.

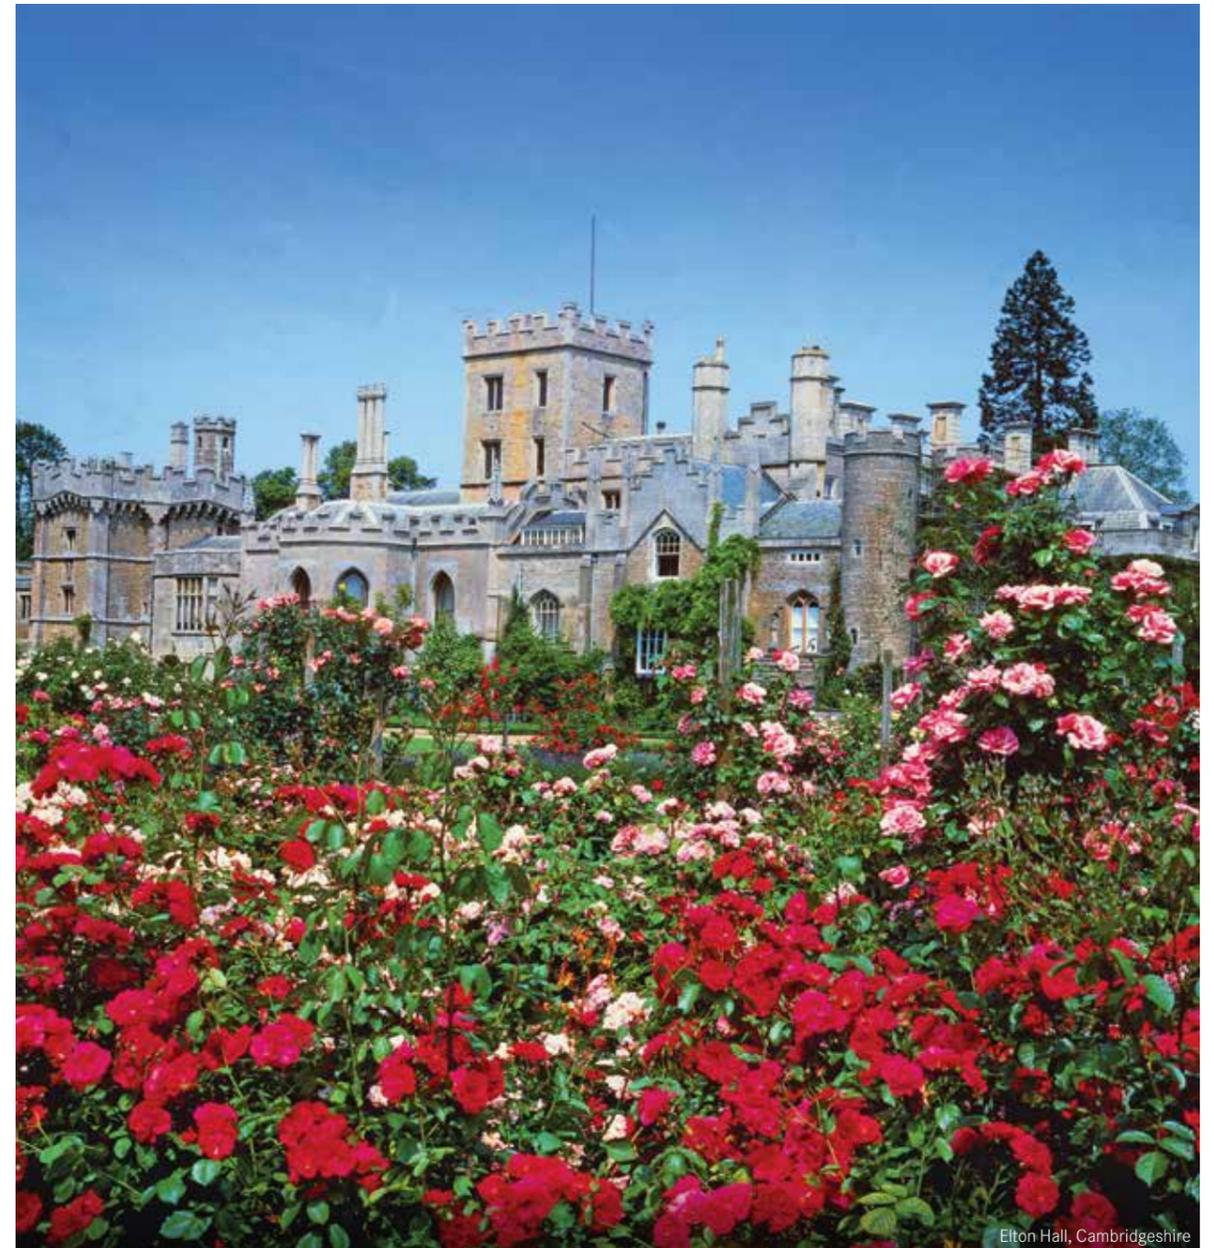

Fact Spotlight:

- Boost your CV by applying for work experience at Carlsberg, Barclaycard, Avon or one of the other global brands with offices in Northampton
- Bicester Village, one of the UK's most popular tourist destinations and the place to buy massively reduced luxury brands such as Gucci, Prada and Jimmy Choo is just a short distance away
- Jump on a train to London and visit your friends for the weekend – only a one hour journey
- Northampton is home to Silverstone motor racing circuit where you can watch the British F1 Grand Prix
- Jessie J, Little Boots, Kate Nash, We Are Scientists and a whole host of others have recently performed in Northampton. Lots more are due soon!
- Visit nearby Althorp House, the family home where Princess Diana grew up

Focus on BSc (Hons) Leather Technology

Do you want to spend your career working with the luxury high-end manufacturers and designers of shoes, handbags, clothes, furniture or even sports car interiors? Do you want to get paid to travel the globe with some of the world's most famous and iconic brands?

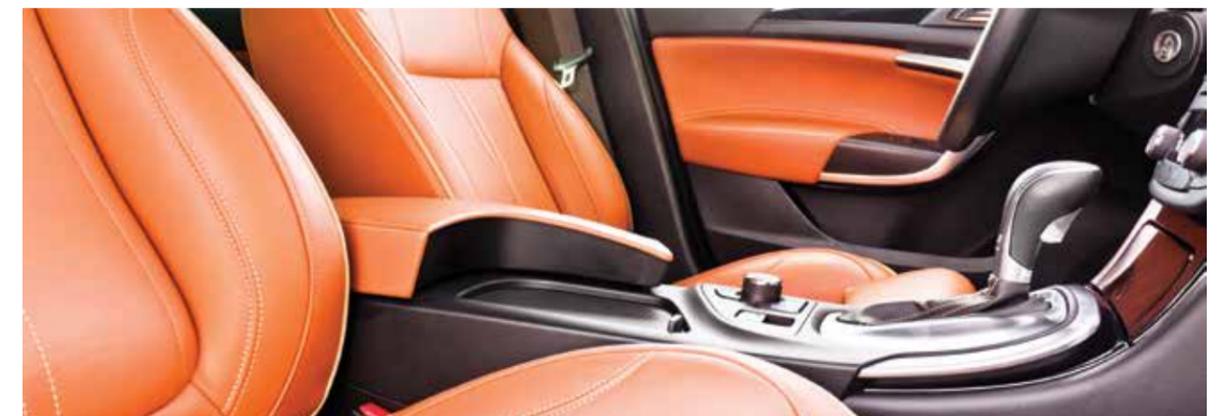

If the answer is yes to any of the above then the University of Northampton's unique and world famous BSc (Hons) Leather Technology is for you. The benefits offered by this degree are so outstanding that the course has boasted an unprecedented 100% graduate employment rate for the past five years.

This pathway provides a complete preparation for entry into the leather industry, which includes companies in the sports, luxury goods, footwear, automotive and fashion sectors, and graduates are in high demand as the course involves a large proportion of practical experience in the University's own on-site teaching tannery and laboratories. The close relationship with industry means that you will frequently be working with senior executives from leading brands, many of whom will themselves be graduates from the programme.

This innovate and exciting degree is based around a backbone of advanced leather technology and the three streams available, Leather Science, Marketing and Business, enables you to specialise in order to tailor your chosen career path.

Fact Spotlight:

- 100% graduate employment for the past five years
- Close links with global luxury brands including Aston Martin, Rolls Royce, Church's and Barker Shoes
- Marketing specialisation available – the perfect preparation for a career with one of the world's top fashion labels
- This course is not offered anywhere else in the UK
- Take part in the annual course visit to Italy*

Focus on MBA (with optional work placement module)

An MBA is recognised throughout the world for providing ambitious and motivated graduates with the skills necessary to succeed in life.

At the University of Northampton it gets even better because MBA students have the option to apply for a paid work placement as part of their studies, spending from six months to one year in an industry position. This work placement, which is included in your study visa, will give you the vital skills, experience and contacts required to forge a highly successful career.

You do not need any work experience to apply for the MBA and, as a graduate of this highly respected programme, you will join a community of influential tutors, business professionals and MBA alumni that spans the globe.

The placement option is available on the MBA programme for full time, on campus students only. A placement should last between six and 12 months, must be appropriate to the level of study and must be paid.

Students will be supported in finding and securing a placement opportunity, but it must be noted that placements are competitive and there is no guarantee of a placement offer being made by an employer. During a work placement, students attend two full day workshops held at the university and will undertake a research project based on the organisation in which they are working.

Students who are unsuccessful in securing a placement within the first nine months of their programme will automatically be transferred to the university's business research project module to gain the required credits to complete the MBA. This will be taught in three full day intensive workshops and supported with one-to-one supervision. Students will have approximately three months to work on their project and will complete their MBA programme within 12 months.

Fact Spotlight:

- Apply for a paid one-year work placement here in the UK as part of your MBA studies
- Join the MBA direct from your undergraduate degree – no work experience is required
- Gain prestigious CIM and CMI qualifications while studying for your MBA

Focus on Pre-Master's with Distance Learning

Do you want all the benefits of a Master's degree from a prestigious UK university but don't want to spend a whole year studying overseas? If so, we've got just the thing for you.

The University of Northampton offer a selection of Master's degrees that are available by distance-learning. This means that you can study in your home country, stay with your family and not take an extended period of time off work.

If you need a Pre-Master's first then you'll need to come to the UK to do that for three months, but the remainder of your Master's degree can be studied online with no further need to travel back to the UK.

The distance-learning option is available for the following University of Northampton Master's degrees:

- MBA
- MSc International Marketing Strategy
- MSc IT Service Management
- MSc Management (International)
- MSc International Logistics
- MSc Accounting and Finance
- LLM International Commercial Law
- LLM International Criminal Law and Security

Fact Spotlight:

- Make financial savings by returning home to study your Master's degree after completion of your Pre-Master's at UNIC
- Take just three months off work to complete your Pre-Master's then study your chosen masters while continuing to work
- Gain a prestigious University of Northampton Master's degree from the comfort of your own home
